Restaurante don juan cartagena reservas

Clicking on the restaurant Don Juan EL TIME You have a gift, Juan, told him not to give him the words of the round notice, which currently hangs like a blue, to enter the place. Don Juan is Juan Felipe himself from the menu menu of the decoration of the place, strategic situated on Calle del Colegio, behind the clock tower, in the historic center of Cartagena. In this menu moment it has 8 hot entries, enters 8 showers, 13 strong dishes, 4 desserts and its most representative dishes and want dishes to seal the grouped, the risotto and the pork trend. The Colombian in his cuisine is in the raw material before all ribs with cocoon rice, bananas and casava. But he thinks that defining his cooking is tough and typing it. What is fundamental is you are the ingredients as the basis of each creation. Octopus, fish and tray are your favorites. Every day I get seafood from Cartagena or the islands; of meat, I receive animals from Cordoba and apply techniques I've learned, grilling, grilling and cooking food. From the native Ibagué he nothing is not reflected in his feed, but to the decoration. The lamps with pich bells, banana strip tables, bags and baskets of royal palm and zuncho and shelter are made with materials and by Tolimense artisan. A meal, an additional conquest of a less electric life, fresh seafood and a new restaurant, Cartagena gave Juan the opportunity a new family. On 8-18, his former restaurant, María Andrea Pinto was hired as an interior decorated. Throughout this work process we were alone, I came from Ibagué, it came from the Manizals, we started leaving. Then Lorenzo came in (3 years), then we went on to live together and two months ago Thomas was born, the chief sums are up. But they had already met in Canada when he started an English course in Vancouver and ended his return to Colombia. And through John's brothers, friends Maria Andrea, they contact one another. That said, she never cooked me, until once in my house she made a meal that I will not forget, so she left a cycytic we bought with a cold sadness. 'He really sned me,' she said. By the decoration of Don Juan basically what Maria Andrea did was like Juan Felipe, what was the most capable. So to achieve harmonious aesthetic enthusiasts in her husband's dreams she gave don Juan the floor pompeire (traditional at some anti-Ooqueña farms and old house Cartageneras); classic French bistro chair; blue ribbon mattress fabric tolimense amelyholster with cart. Therefore, after an intense process of training, it happened in eight Basque restaurants, as prestigious as Arzak and Bodegón Alejandro, despite it happening just six years ago in Cartagena to face the difficulties of a limited budget, at 33 years old, slowly and earn authority, she teaches advices and points out a social spelldo. East Coast respetado skin of colleagues are a gold más import: the pretense sun por comes. Sin querer salir jodavía de sucina. REDACION EL TIEMPO 17/03/2010 Ambiance and service were both the most important food was outstanding! Awesome location, great service and super fast! Must command crews to crab and start hooks and shrimp risotto risottoe. Staff would lock doors when tables at fitness, but worth trying to get in for one of the best meals in cartagena. Very doubt there's a bad item on the menu. We left feeling like we were on a cloud (though beautifully probably helped with that). One of Cartagena's best restaurants. Dishes are made to be shared (family style). Classic Cartagena restaurant seafood. Great menu and everything was delicious. Tuna's teriyaki was an estandoutGreat decor - good food. Feels like a New York restaurant. The seas and lemon risotto were great! Fish with olive oil and lemon, soups fish, sea fish and chlamy and peas. Octopus apetizer, risotto shrimp, and helicopter lamb. Don't forget the apple spot for dessert. Amazing restaurant alongside her neighbor Maria's brother. Making the coast eye, medium rare! Great start, falafel, banana kroquettesBetter than any ceviche restaurant in NYC. Not cheap (relatively) but with the money. Go to Brazil! Shrimp with passion fruit cream and roasted robalo is the surprisingly slow beef-tay ground awisome. Mango confusion was particularly great. Take the Mero and Risotto with lemon and parmesan cheese sauce! Eat pretentious, exaggerated ingredients on fresh seafood. The Octopus was good. Wine list is fine. Very nice place! Excelent food, beautiful people. The ceviche and the pounding was delicious!! Posibly the best food in the city. Try anything. The service and everything was fine... until I get up the next day food poisoning. Probably because of toys, the only thing that I didn't share with my husband is cheap but Risotto's and shrimp were perfect! Tartar's tuna is pretty good. The rest of the entries we tried was very overwhelming. Certainly the best places in town at this price range. Sea bass and risotto world is insaneLoved of everything! Will return.
